STARTING A SOCIAL MEDIA CONVERSATION IN THE CLASSROOM

What are rules you have about using your phone? Why do you think that rule exists? What do you think the rule should be?

Was there a time when someone assumed they knew why you were using your device, when you were using it for a positive reason. What were you doing? What did they assume you were doing? How do you think the situation could have been handled in a fair manner?

What are some skills you learned using a social media platform. What did you learn? Where did you learn it? Why did you want to learn it? How did it turn out?

Who's a creator you watched when you were younger? Where did you watch them? Why did you watch them? Why did you stop watching them?

Let's make a list of the ways you use your device. How do you think your parents did those things when they were your age?

STARTING A SOCIAL MEDIA CONVERSATION IN THE CLASSROOM

Why would a kid your age have their device out even if there are people around. Can you think of ways to get adults to understand some of these reasons?

What's something cool you've done on a video game?

If you could have a YouTube channel, what would it be about?

If you could make rules about screen time and everyone, including the adults, had to follow them, what would those rules be?

What do you think good rules are for a kid using Snapchat?
